

Having spent twenty-three years with these powerful spirited dogs you cannot imagine your world without them anymore! His stable strong-minded character makes the Bouvier des Flandres an ideal family dog who claims a lot of you though.

What has led us to start a breed? Well, only now that our children are grown we've got the required time and with Bryana we've found a dog who combines all that we've been looking for: the reliable family companion even with small kids, but one who lives his strong working drive as well, in water (rescue) work in this special case.

A quiet buddy in the house who you might not even notice there, an observant, well-behaving travelling companion, but in her "job" a real demon for work!
